

INFORMATION REGARDING THIS NOTICE

The City of Tacoma is supplying this information sheet to assist tenants with understanding this notice. This information sheet is informative only and DOES NOT provide legal advice regarding your individual tenancy. If you need to obtain legal advice regarding your individual tenancy, please contact the resources listed on the back of this page.

What is a Notice to Increase Rent?

This notice informs a tenant that the landlord is increasing the amount of monthly rent that a tenant must pay to continue living in the rental unit.

How Much Time Does a Tenant Have Before Paying the Increased Rent?

Starting in July 2023, the City of Tacoma increased the amount of time a landlord must provide a tenant before any increase in rent becomes effective. A landlord in Tacoma must provide a tenant at least 120-days written notice before the increase in rent takes effect.

What Other Information Must a Landlord Provide a Tenant About the Rent Increase?

Under Tacoma's Rental Housing Code, a landlord must identify the amount of new rent owing, the percentage the rent is increasing, and the date on which the increase becomes effective.

What If a Tenant Fails to Pay the Increase Rent Amount?

If a tenant is served with a valid notice of rent increase and does not have a valid legal reason to pay the increased rent, then the landlord may serve a notice to pay rent or vacate once the new rent becomes effective and the tenant has not paid the increased amount.

What If a Tenant Disagrees with the Amount of the Rent Increase?

A tenant may have a legal reason to not pay an increase in rent. These reasons are complicated and very fact specific. If a tenant disagrees with a rent increase, it is important to contact the resources listed at the end of this information sheet and speak with a housing attorney.
